

Bob a Job

What's that?

This campaign is perhaps one of the oldest ways of raising money. 'Bob a Job' simply means doing small jobs for money. Pupils can collect money for the ETF by doing odd jobs for people they know.

Why?

The ETF needs to renovate its roof. This is an expensive undertaking. So financial support is most welcome. Doing odd jobs is a fun way for children and young people to learn about the concept of 'earning money'. Through a campaign like this, the young people become involved in the good cause by actually doing something for it themselves.

How?

1. Download the ETF logo and make folders for the campaign.
2. Send a mail with your idea and the date of the campaign to info@etf.edu.
3. Explain to the children, and possibly the parents, what the ETF is and why the ETF is the good cause for the campaign.
4. Encourage pupils to do odd jobs for people they know. Consider, for example, washing cars, digging the garden, walking the dog, watering plants, baby-sitting or washing up.
5. The pupil who raises the largest sum is given a prize (for example, cinema tickets). The sum collected (possibly minus expenses) goes to the ETF.
6. You can pay the proceeds into the accounts below.
