

Collection

What's that?

Approach your Church leadership with the suggestion of holding a collection for the ETF. This campaign is ideal from combining with 'Talk your Church round' (giving a talk at Church about the ETF).

Why?

Eleven reasons for supporting the ETF financially

1.	ETF Leuven provides theological courses that use the Bible as a guideline.
2.	Students and alumni of the ETF are trained in theory and practice for work in Churches, on the mission field and in Christian organisations.
3.	The ETF is dependent on gifts for 35% of its income.
4.	The ETF provides a framework in which students can develop personally and spiritually.
5.	The ETF is interdenominational (interchurch). This makes us unique and interesting. One disadvantage of this is that we are not structurally supported by a Church denomination.
6.	All the lecturers and professors linked to the ETF have Christian convictions.
7.	ETF alumni take up positions throughout society and so can make a difference all around the world and in all parts of society.
8.	Maintaining the ETF library is a costly matter. As an academic faculty, it is of great importance that the collection is and remains up-to-date and relevant.
9.	The ETF uses its financial means with the greatest of care. This means, for example, that tasks such as cleaning and catering are done by the students themselves.
10.	Students and staff are very committed to the ETF, which means that the vision of the ETF is pursued efficiently and purposefully.
11.	The ETF is dedicated to theological education on an international scale that is true to the Bible. This means that we have students from all over the world studying at our faculty.

Collection (part 2)

How?

1. Download the ETF logo and make a PowerPoint slide to show at Church. This can be projected during the collection.
2. Explain to your Church what the ETF is and why the ETF needs spiritual and financial support.
3. Pass on the following payment details to the Church leadership, so that they can transfer the proceeds.
